Governor Kathy Hochul today announced the launch of New York's first Bulk Energy Storage Request for Proposals (RFP), intended to procure one gigawatt (GW) of bulk energy storage as part of New York's 6 GW Energy Storage Roadmap. Adding bulk energy storage to New York's grid will lower costs.

New York State continues to advance its bulk energy storage deployment efforts, and a final Bulk Storage Implementation Plan is now likely to be made public before the end of April—with procurements set to begin by June 30, 2025. On Friday, March 21, the Public Service Commission ("PSC") approved.

The state of New York announced its first bulk energy storage solicitation on Monday, issuing a request for proposals to procure a total of 1 GW from storage developers as part of a state goal to deploy 6 GW of energy storage by 2030. The New York State Energy Research and Development Authority is.

NYSEG has developed a request for proposal (RFP) to procure a minimum of 10 MW of energy storage projects to be in service by December 31, 2030. This initiative will help meet energy storage goals and complement the growing use of intermittent technologies on the transmission and distribution.

Let's face it - the energy storage cabinet market is buzzing like a beehive in spring. With projects like State Grid Gansu's 291kWh solid-state battery cabinet procurement (¥645,000 budget) [1] and Southern Power Grid's 25MWh liquid-cooled cabinet framework tender [10], bidding opportunities are.
