Overview

Does Greece need a battery energy storage system?

Greece has initiated a series of competitive tenders to bolster its energy storage infrastructure, aiming to integrate significant battery energy storage systems (BESS) into its electricity grid. These tenders are part of a broader strategy to enhance grid flexibility and support renewable energy integration.

Does Greece have a zero-subsidy battery system?

The much-awaited ministerial decree for zero-subsidy standalone battery systems has been published in Greece. So far, Greece has provided support to 900 MW of standalone storage projects under three previous auctions.

Why is sunny Greece a good place to invest in solar energy?

Sunny Greece struggles with an overabundance of solar generation, which creates a valuable opportunity for BESS (battery energy storage systems) to provide flexibility and relieve grid pressure. Greece has become a dynamic renewables market, rapidly scaling solar and wind deployments alongside EU-aligned energy reforms.

How many MW of Bess are there in Greece?

As of early 2025, Greece has approximately 100 MW of operational BESS, comprising a small number of FTM (front-of-the-meter) projects and pilots developed prior to the 2023 tenders. Several additional systems became operational in 2024, but the bulk of large-scale storage capacity remains under development.
